ELIGIBILITY

To be inducted into the National Chinese Honor Society Oakland University Chapter and receive its certificate, students must meet the following qualifications.

- Must be enrolled as a Chinese Minor
- Must be a full-time student who has successfully completed five semesters of Chinese language courses at the college undergraduate level, or have been placed in the third year Chinese after the placement test
- Must have enrolled in the sixth semester of the Chinese course
- Must have a cumulative GPA of 3.5 on a 4-point scale in Chinese language courses and have an overall cumulative GPA of 3.0 on a 4-point scale for all college level courses taken
- Must demonstrate strong evidence of engagement and commitment to Chinese language and culture related in school or community activities
- Must preserve an excellent record of behavior in and out of school

APPLICATION REVIEW

As the National Chinese Honor Society Oakland University Chapter (NCHS-OU) Faculty Council reviews the applications, the faculty members will be looking for the following:

- Your depth of commitment to service and leadership in school and the community
- Involvement in school and community activities
- Maintaining a strong GPA, all applicants have already met academic criteria to be invited. Having a 4.0 GPA does not have any more bearing for membership consideration than a 3.5 GPA.

The deadline for submitting the application form to the Chinese Honor Society-OU advisor, Dr. Melanie Chang <chang23@oakland.edu>, via email is February 15 each year (no late application will be accepted).

The completed application should be accompanied by US$20 cash (the lifetime membership and the cost for certificate shipping and handling). Candidates may submit the membership fee to their Chinese instructors or Dr. Chang.
